

Language Institute of Ireland

34 Weafer Street, Enniscorthy, Co. Wexford, Ireland

Terms and Conditions

1. Fees

All fees must be received before the commencement of the course.

2. Bookings

Upon receipt of a booking, a confirmation letter and invoice will be sent if a place is available. Please note that sending a form does not guarantee a place. Some courses fill early, particularly during the high season. Ensure that all sections of the form are filled.

Quote reference numbers and invoice numbers in all correspondence.

Accommodation details and Pre-departure Guidelines normally sent approximately 2 weeks before arrival.

Bookings are not transferable i.e. they are specific to the dates, course and applicant as stated on the booking form.

3. Insurance

All students are responsible for their own health and travel insurance.

Citizens of the EU, EEA (Iceland, Liechtenstein

Norway) and Switzerland should obtain a European Health Insurance Card from their local Social Welfare office and bring it with them to Ireland. See the EHIC site for details.

4. Health

Any student who is undergoing ongoing medical treatment should provide full details prior to their arrival in Ireland. Such participants should bring sufficient medicinal supplies. Providing false, misleading or insufficient information regarding the health of a student may result in their course being terminated without refund.

5 Discipline

The Language Institute of Ireland reserves the right to terminate the course of any student who breaks the law or brings The Language Institute of Ireland into disrepute or presents a threat to others in the school.

Students responsible for loss, injury or damage caused to property or individuals must meet any costs incurred.

The Language Institute of Ireland reserves the right to refuse a booking from any applicant.

6 Holidays

The office opening hours are Monday - Friday 09.00 - 17.00

No extra classes are provided in lieu of the August Bank Holiday Monday.

7 Changes

The Language Institute of Ireland reserves the right to postpone or cancel any course or to alter the dates, prices and conditions on all published material.
